Do you have what it takes to be CRAFTY?

The Original Craft Night facilitates a monthly craft event at various venues for people to connect with family and friends and have fun while enjoying a personalized, creative experience. If they are crafting solo, it is an excellent way for people to make new friends in their community. Events are held in various settings most frequently in Pubs, Restaurants, and other local venues

Team Members – Creative Facilitators

Join the Original Craft Night Team and become a Creative Facilitator.

If you are:
- ➤ Fun-loving
- ➤ A Passionate collaborator
- ● Sociable
- ● Looking for a creative outlet that pays

If you want to:
- Earn some extra money, while having fun
- Connect with new people
- Have fun!
- ● Learn new crafts, and art projects
- ● Work with an amazing group of people

If you are willing to:
- Learn how to host (or be an assistant to a host) for craft events
- Be sociable, friendly & helpful
- Share your talents and skills with clients and with our creative team

Then:
- ➤ You can put your creative talents and personality to use and create a side hustle that pays well.
- ➤ Work the number of hours you want with flexibility to manage the rest of your busy life.
- ➤ Meet new people and enjoy hosting and providing an exceptional Craft Night experience to customers.

Flexibility
- You can decide how many events, and the area you want to host in.
- We will provide you with the opportunity to host in person, or even virtually.

Training and Support
- You will receive training on teaching the craft and providing an Original Craft Night experience.

Opportunities
- Paid a minimum number of hours for each event.
- Bonuses based on the cost of supplies for each event and the number of participants.
- Opportunities to find venues for extra bonuses.
- Create crafts that can be used for Craft Nights for more bonuses.

Community Connection
- Expand your social network, make new friends, and connect with other Team Members

Send us an email to: TheOriginalCraftNight@gmail.com to apply or ask questions.
We look forward to creating with you!